

Managing Categories

When you add an app to your Apperian account, you associate it with one or more app categories. Categories are used to group and classify apps on a mobile device. Users can then view the contents of the App Catalog organized by category.

Categories Page

Use the Admin Portal Categories page to add and manage categories.

