

Managing Application Policies

Application policies provide added layers of security, management, and measurement capabilities to your apps in order to support corporate requirements and enhance your users' mobile experience. Review these pages to learn more about policies and how they work.

About Policies

This page explains what policies are and how to use them.

Available Policies

This page lists all of the policies available in Apperian.

Define Policy Presets

This page describes how to configure options on the Policies page.

Apply Policies to an App

This page describes how to apply one or more policies to an app.

Remove Policies from an App

This page describes how to remove policies from an app.

Reapply Policies to an App

This page describes how to reapply policies to an app.
